CSAHU is offering NAHU Conference Attendees, NAHU Members, and their families, a day filled with a picture postcard-perfect experience through the dramatic peaks of the Rockies on a private train excursion! This train will not be available to anyone else this day! The train will leave Denver's Union Station at 9:00 a.m. for a 2 1/2 hour train ride through the Rockies dropping participants off directly at the base of the Winter Park Resort. Participants will enjoy an outdoor BBQ at the base of the mountain from 12:00-1:30 pm leaving an afternoon open to mountain bike, hike, play miniature golf, ride the Alpine Slide and sightsee at the resort. The train will head back to Denver at 4:00 p.m. where you can enjoy not only the scenic wonders of the Flatirons and South Boulder Canyon but also encounter rugged alpine wilderness and vistas not seen anywhere else but on the Train. You'll pass through dozens of tunnels including the historic Moffat Tunnel under the Continental Divide. For more information on the ski train history and the excursion route go to www.skitrain.com/summer.htm.

Come a day early for the NAHU Annual Convention in Denver, Colorado and join CSAHU for this Great day of fun! On-line registration will be available in February at www.csahu.org
